IAM

Awaken the Divine Creator Within

ANGIE FLY

I AM: Awaken the Divine Creator Within by Angie Fly Copyright © 2025 by Angie Fly
All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced in any form without written permission from the author, except by reviewers and brief quotations.

This book is a spiritual teaching tool and is not intended as a substitute for medical, psychological, or professional advice.

Cover design by Fly Media Interior layout by Fly Media

To every soul who forgot how powerful they are.
May this remind you.
And to my beautiful daughter...May life bring your heart's desire.

Table of Contents

Introduction: Remembering Who You Are

Chapter 1: The Sacred Name – Understanding the Power of "I AM"

Chapter 2: Made in the Image – Divine Identity

Revealed

Chapter 3: The Subconscious Mind - The Soil of "I AM"

Chapter 4: Breaking the Spell – Undoing Negative "I

AMs"

Chapter 5: Speak It Into Being – The Power of the

Spoken Word

Chapter 6: Becoming the Vision - Feel It Real

Chapter 7: Faith Over Frequency – Staying in Spiritual Alignment

Chapter 8: Embodiment Over Ego - The Identity

Shift

Chapter 9: The Power of Surrender – Letting Go to Receive

Chapter 10: I AM Whole - Living from Your Divine

Identity

Conclusion: You Are the Revelation

Bonus*: I AM Daily Ritual - Anchor Your Power

Acknowledgement
About The Author

Introduction

I want you to know how powerful you are and how you have what it takes to live a fulfilling, abundant life.

We were created with the same material as stars. Somehow we have forgotten who we really are. In the flesh, we are limited. In the spirit, we are unlimited. The flesh can whisper to us those things that keep us grounded, but the spirit whispers to us, the things that make us FLY. I want you to tap into your spiritual powerwho you really are. I want you to be so overwhelmed with the goodness of God that it overflows in your life and the lives of your loved ones. This is our purpose. This is who we are. I AM divine power, so are you. I hope this book ignites your eternal memory. I hope it awakens your divine spiritual nature. I hope you come face to face with I AM. Good Luck.

Chapter 1

The Sacred Name - Understanding "I AM"

"God said to Moses, 'I AM THAT I AM."" — Exodus 3:14

There are moments in life when a simple phrase changes everything. For me, it was the day I truly heard the words:

"I AM... that I AM."

Not just as ancient scripture. Not just as a name God gave to Moses. But as a truth that echoed inside my soul — loud, clear, and undeniable.

God didn't say, "I am the Almighty," or "I am your Creator," or "I am your protector," even though all those are true.

No, He said, "I AM." Full stop.

It was the ultimate declaration of presence, existence, and authority.

It was the blueprint of identity — and we, being made in His image, carry that same divine pattern.

The Power in a Name

Names matter. In many spiritual traditions, names are not just labels — they are destinies. In the Bible, names were often changed to reflect a shift in identity or calling:

- Abram became Abraham (from "exalted father" to "father of many")
- Sarai became Sarah
- Jacob became Israel
- Saul became Paul

But before any of these transformations, before any covenants or miracles, there was this one divine moment in Exodus 3: Moses meets the burning bush and asks for God's name.

"And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM. Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you."

Here we are introduced into power, we are invited into a depth that needs no description other than: it exists! It is powerful to live in that freedom; that spirit of I AM-ness.

This wasn't just a name. It was an invitation. An invitation to align with the eternal now — to understand that divinity is not in the past or future, but always in the present state of being.

Every "I AM" Is a Creation

Most people think affirmations are trendy self-help tricks. But they're not just cute quotes or Pinterest mantras. Affirmations are creative declarations. They are energetic and they have the power to bend the energy field. The ear is created to receive the vibrations of words and translate the rhythms to the brain. Words are powerful. The Universe responds to vibrations and frequencies. Your words send out a frequency and the Universe, the energetic field responds.

Every time you say "I am..." you're not just describing something.
You're activating something.
You are activating eternal power.
You are speaking into your subconscious

You are imprinting your soul with a belief. You are shaping your reality.

- "I am tired" and so you feel drained.
- "I am unlucky" and so misfortune repeats.
- "I am not enough" and so you attract lack, rejection, and scarcity.

But what happens when you shift?

- "I am powerful."
- "I am love."
- "I am abundant."
- "I am whole."
- "I am divine."

You're not trying to manifest something outside of yourself — you're affirming what is already within you, waiting to be recognized. Without your own acknowledgment, YOU ARE what is great and good. But the power you receive when you acknowledge it and live it! You become what you are looking for to save you, to love you, to define you, to validate you. YOU ARE.

In the Beginning Was the Word

The Gospel of John begins:

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." (John 1:1)

The universe was spoken into existence. Let there be light. Let there be life. Words create. Words carry power. Words shape form.

And the most powerful words you'll ever speak? The words that follow "I AM."

You are not separate from God. You are not a weak, begging creature trying to earn blessings.

.

You are a child of the Most High. You are a cocreator. You are made of the same divine spark that formed galaxies and parted seas. It is now time for you to realize that and act and speak accordingly.

Why Most People Misuse "I AM"

We weren't taught to speak with intention. We weren't taught to protect our identity like sacred ground.

In fact, we were often taught to play small:

- "Don't be arrogant."
- "Be realistic."
- "Stay humble."

But true humility isn't denying your divinity — it's honoring it without ego.

You don't have to be better than anyone. You just have to be aligned with your truth.

And the truth is this:

You are who God says you are. You are the "I AM" in motion. You are divine light. You are wholeness. You live in abundance and not lack.

Spiritual Exercise: Watching Your "I AM" Statements

This week, begin to observe how you use the phrase "I am."

Q Step 1: Awareness

- Every time you say "I am..." pause and ask:
- Is this in alignment with who I truly am or is it a false identity?

Q Step 2: Rewrite the Script

- Replace every negative or disempowering "I am" with one rooted in truth.
- "I am always broke" → "I am open to divine abundance."
- "I am so unlucky" → "I am aligned with grace and flow."
- "I am stuck" → "I am growing through this."

Step 3: Speak with Emotion

- Don't just recite. Feel it.
- Say it in the mirror. Say it with your hand over your heart. Say it like it's already real because in the spirit realm, it is.

Final Thoughts: Your Words Are Keys

The "I AM" within you is not separate from the "I AM" that spoke to Moses.

It is the same divine essence — eternal, powerful, infinite.

You've said a thousand "I am" statements in your life, but now you're going to say them with intention, alignment, and faith.

Because when you say "I AM" — heaven listens. And when you believe it — the world responds.

Affirmations from Chapter 1:

- I AM made in the image of God.
- I AM a powerful co-creator of my life.
- I AM worthy, whole, and divinely guided.
- I AM speaking life, light, and love into my world.
- I AM everything God intended me to be now.

